1. At the time of admission the new entrants (Both +2 1st Year and +3 1st Year) and their parents have signed in an undertaking against ragging.
2. In the Induction meeting the fresher's are also advised not to be involved in any kind of ragging and to report immediately to the Anti Ragging Cell if they face any kind of mental or physical ragging in the campus.
3. In the undergraduate Departmental Welcome Meetings the faculty members make the students aware of the negative impacts of Ragging & the strict legal provisions against those who indulge in ragging.
4. In the welcome meeting of the Hostels (Both boys' & Girls') boarders are also advised not make any discrimination against the fresher's. The members of Anti-ragging cell will regularly visit the hostels to ensure that hostel are ragging free zones.

In Kuchinda College, Kuchinda, Sambalpur we have adopted the policy of Zero tolerance towards Ragging in the college campus and in all the hostels (Boys' and Girls').

Yours faithfully,

Principal
